(U) PROCEDURES USED BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGA.TION FOR TARGETING NON-UNITED STATES PERSONS REASONABLY BELIEVED.::(?-BE : LOCATED OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES TO ACQUIRE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 702 OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE ACT OF 1978, AS AMENDED

(S/AF)-These procedures address: (I) the process the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) will use in acquiring foreign intelligence information, targeting electronic communications accounts/addresses/identifiers designated by the National Security Agency (NSA) ("Designated Accounts") as being used by non-United States persons reasonably believed to be located outside the United States, (II) the FBI's documentation of that process, and (III) compliance and oversight.
I. (U) DETERMINATION OF WHETHER A PERSON IS REASONABLY BELIEVED TO BE LOCATED OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES AND NOT A UNITED STATES PERSON will follow its targeting procedures, adopted by the Attorney General, in consultation with the Director of National Intelligence, pursuant to subsection 702(d) of the Act, for determining that the user of the Designated Account is a person reasonably believed to be located outside the United States and is not a United States person. NSA will also be responsible for determining that a significant purpose of the acquisition is to obtain foreign intelligence information.

2. (SNE)NSA will provide the FBI with identifying information of any Designated Account obtained or identified by the NSA through application of its targeting procedures and ## determined to be reliable, including (1) and (2) additional identifying information of the user of the Designated Account, to the extent that NSA assesses it would be useful to FBI for purposes of application of these procedures. ${ }^{23}$ NSA must also provide the FBI with an explanation ofNSA's conclusion that the user of the Designated Account is a person reasonably believed to be located outside the United States and its determination regarding the non-United States person status of the user. NSA will also represent that a significant purpose to obtain foreign intelligence information and that the purpose of such acquisition is not to intentionally target a particular, known person reasonably believed to be in the United States.

3. (U) The FBI, in consultation with NSA, will review and evaluate the sufficiency of: (a) NSA's explanation for its reasonable belief that the user of the Designated Account is located outside of the United States; and (b) information provided by NSA concerning the Designated Account user's non-United States person status.

${ }^{2}$ Should NSA provide to the FBI additional identifying information of the user of the Designated Account, the FBI will consider such additional information
